

Meet Jennie England

Jennie England incorporates into her work, 28 years of experience in the areas of leadership, communication, and teamwork with 10 years of professional coaching. She has enhanced these "real world" skills with over two decades of study and teaching of meditation, which enables her to support clients who wish to integrate spiritual principles into their personal and work lives for greater success and fulfillment.

Jennie's life-long love of learning began at an early age. She obtained a Masters' and Bachelor's degree from Northwestern University's School of Communication and then continued to develop skills in the areas of human development. Jennie is Certified by the International Coach Federation (ICF) and the Coaches Training Institute (CTI), a graduate of CTI's Leadership Program Quest, a Leader's Journey, Appreciative Inquiry, Corporate Coaching and Peak Performance for Leaders.

Jennie is the Original Director of the Direct Selling Women's Alliance Coaching Center, co-creator of the Principle Centered Coaching Program, author of the CD and E-book, PCC, and contributing author of best selling books, Build It Big and More Build It Big.

Jennie's own journey (still in progress) of creating a rich, fulfilling life, combined with her education, training and varied life experiences make working with her profound, profitable and fun! Jennie combines a compassionate heart, powerful truths, and insightful feedback to empower her clients to discover their own wisdom, uncover new possibilities, and take action to go further than they ever dreamed possible!

Whether you work with Jennie in the arenas of business, non-profits, educational institutions, spiritual communities, worldwide associations or as a private client, you will experience the life-changing effect of finding the wisdom of your own heart.

Jennie England

Certified Coach, Author,
Seminar & Tele-course Leader
Founder, Wisdom In Action

What Jennie's clients say...

"As a result of Jennie's training and follow-up, we now enjoy a more cooperative and supportive work environment which is motivating greater leadership, commitment and productivity within our organization and empowering staff to use their own resources for problem solving"

Pam Williams
Human Resources

"As the owner of a Marketing Consulting firm, I have found my work with Jennie to be an invaluable component of our success. She has helped bring clarity, purpose and passion back to our work, which has profoundly impacted the bottom line."

Jane Deuber, President
Power Partners

"The training exceeded my staff development expectations. It was practical, specific and gave us a common language for more effective communication. Consequently, more cooperation, collaboration and teamwork took place with extraordinary results."

Halle Prior
Foundation Director